Re: Initial Report for a newly established corporation in the FSM

Dear Mr. Secretary,

As required by Public Law 13-71, I am submitting to you our Initial Report.

The true and correct name of this corporation is:_____.

The Company has already opened a bank account at the following bank _(bank name and address)_____. The Company has either already deposited at least US$100,000 or its equivalent into that bank account (the Company is prepared to send a bank statement to the Secretary within 30 days of any request to give evidence of such a bank account) representing the Initial Capital of the Company, or it has transferred the ownership of other assets (e.g., securities or title to properties) to the Company with values exceeding US$100,000. As defined by Public Law 21-49, $100,000 is the minimum capital that any FSM captive insurance company must carry. The Company is therefore a Major Corporation.
